

2026-2027 Edition Pediatrics Flashcards

Growth & Development

Flashcard 448

Text currently reads:	Text should read:
Explanation: The palmar grasp reflex persists until 56 months of age, and the Moro reflex persists until 3-6 months of age. Note: We use the AAP and CDC evidence informed milestones for developmental surveillance; other sources may differ.	Explanation: The palmar grasp reflex persists until 5-6 months of age, and the Moro reflex persists until 3-6 months of age. Note: We use the AAP and CDC evidence informed milestones for developmental surveillance; other sources may differ.

Metabolic Disorders

Flashcard 585

Text currently reads:	Text should read:
Explanation: Those with PKU who remain untreated have severe intellectual disability (IQ < 30), with irreversible damage by 8 weeks of age .	Explanation: Those with PKU who remain untreated develop severe intellectual disability (IQ < 30), with irreversible damage.