

2021 Pediatrics Video Board Review Syllabus

Behavioral Medicine & Substance Abuse:

Page 9, Mental Health Disorders > Psychotic (Thought) Disorders

Text currently reads:	Text should read:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Schizophreniform disorder <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Schizophrenia-like disorder – Symptoms last < 1 month 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Schizophreniform disorder <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Schizophrenia-like disorder – Symptoms last 1–6 months

Page 91, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder

Figure currently reads:	Figure should read:
Approximate prevalence distribution of the subtypes of ADHD	Approximate prevalence distribution of the subtypes of ADHD

Infectious Disease:

Page 400, Parvovirus B19

Text currently reads:	Text should read:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Causes erythema infectiosum (fifth disease) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Once rash appears, child no longer infectious • Infects RBC precursors in the bone marrow <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Transient aplastic crisis in patients with sickle cell – Chronic anemias in those with leukemia/immune deficiency • Acute polyarthritis of hands, knees, feet that resolves over several weeks; 50% rash • Pregnancy: Most infants normal; 5–10% will have fetal loss • with hydrops fetalis • Dx: IgM antibodies to parvovirus B19 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Causes erythema infectiosum (fifth disease) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Once rash appears, child no longer infectious • Infects RBC precursors in the bone marrow <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Transient aplastic crisis in patients with sickle cell – Chronic anemias in those with leukemia/immune deficiency • Acute polyarthritis of hands, knees, feet that resolves over several weeks; 50% rash • Pregnancy: Most infants normal; 5–10% will have fetal loss with hydrops fetalis • Dx: IgM antibodies to parvovirus B19